

Alkesh Dinesh Mody Institute (ADMI), a Department of Mumbai University established in 1994, is a rapidly growing Institute in Mumbai. At our institute we continuously strive at integrating academic learning with industry exposure, with assistance of highly experienced visiting faculty, corporate dignitaries and our Alumni through Mentorship Programs, Industry Interaction, Round table conferences and Guest lectures.

This year was a proud occasion for us to be associated with MTHR (More Than HR Global. MTHR) which is one of the leading body of HR and Allied Professionals established in the year 2002 growing over the years and continuously adding more members to its Association.

With the culmination of being a growing business school and combination of such widely respected association it was a perfect blend to host a seminar on the topic “Nurturing Geniuses: Leadership Lessons from Young Achievers”.
