

UGC- SPECIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SAP)

The UGC has approved SAP scheme to the Department of Life Sciences, University of Mumbai. The research project under SAP scheme is entitled "Bioremediation and Phytoremediation of Industrial Wastes". The research work on Bioremediation and Phytoremediation will be carried out under the guidance of Prof.M.H.Fulekar, Department of Life Sciences, University of Mumbai. The applications are invited from eligible candidates for recruiting two Junior Research Fellows to work under the research project for a period of five years under the UGC SAP scheme. The candidates appointed will work with a salary of Rs. 12,000/- per month as per the UGC rules.

The applicants should have M.Sc. Degree with minimum of 55% marks (5% relaxation for reserved category candidates) having specialization in Biological science (Life Sciences/Microbiology/Botany/Zoology/Biotechnology/Environmental sciences) recognized by UGC. The applicants should apply on a plain paper giving the following details:

- i) Full Name,
- ii) Corresponding Address with Phone and Email
- iii) Age
- iv) Educational Qualifications
- v) Experience in support of their claim

Preference will be given to the candidates who have experience in the area of Bioremediation and Phytoremediation.

The applications should reach to the Head, Department of Life Sciences, University of Mumbai, Santacruz (E), Mumbai -400 098. The last date for receipt of applications is 16th February 2010. The interview will be held on 25th February 2010 at 11am. In Department of Life Sciences, University of Mumbai, Santacruz (E), Mumbai.

The candidates will have to borne their own TA/DA expenditure.

Date: 2nd Februray 2010

Place: Mumbai

Dr. Sanjay Deshmukh
Professor & Head,
Department of Life Sciences